

Read the Measuring Jugs: Liters and Milliliters

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read the scale on each jug where the liquid stops. Count the small marks between the numbers.

1 liter (L) = 1,000 milliliters (mL)

1. Jugs 3 and 4 are poured together. How many mL is that? _____
2. Jug 1 is poured into 1-liter bottles. How many bottles can be filled all the way? _____
3. Which holds more: a 1-liter bottle or a 500 mL bottle? _____

Read the Measuring Jugs: Liters and Milliliters

Answer Key

Read the scale on each jug where the liquid stops. Count the small marks between the numbers.

1 liter (L) = 1,000 milliliters (mL)

1. Jugs 3 and 4 are poured together. How many mL is that? 1800 mL
2. Jug 1 is poured into 1-liter bottles. How many bottles can be filled all the way? 9
3. Which holds more: a 1-liter bottle or a 500 mL bottle? 1 liter